

CARRIERS ADDRESS TO THE PATRONS OF THE KANSAS WEEKLY HERALD.
January 1, 1855.

A mournful sound strikes upon the ear,
Is it the mother weeping for her child?
Not this the knell of the departed year,
Sung by the winds in accents drear and wild.
Time writes her deeds upon historic page,
That we may read when years have rolled away,
The memorials of a woman's life,
Established in interest free from all decay.

Within the year the proud unyielding Czar,
Has bid defiance to the allied host;
Widows have marked the cruel fate of war,
Their children beggared and their husbands lost.
Homes are made desolate and drear—
Peace and contentment turned to bitter woe, Songs that were wont the laboring swain to cheer, Become the requiem of a fallen foe.

Hungry in ruin, still the lion roars,
But anxiously anticipates the time,
When his unshrinking and triumphant sons, Shall trample down the tyrants yielding line.
Poland still writhes beneath the galling yoke,
And anxiously awaits her sons return,
France for a miracle has not revoked,
The edicts of Horatius's tyrant son.

Albion, the proud presumptuous isle,
Still stretches her lions grasping paw,
And Spain, involved in anarchy, while Has triumphed over order, peace and law.
Rome, in her ruins stands in grandeur still,
To tell where Cicero—where Pompey was;
Greece struggling with her freedom will,
Invokes the shade of great Thymistocles.

On the broad bosom of the Amazon,
The puffing steamer plows her busy way, Brazilian policy has softened down,
And Yankee enterprise has gained the day.
From Patagonia's wild and desert sand,
To Oronoko's climes of evergreen,
Where sunshine glistens on the golden land,
The foreign stranger seeks a future home.

America, for eighteen fifty-four,
Can tell a tale of progress and of blood,
Her sons have fallen before the Indians power,
Their bones are whitening on the desert sod.
Her lightning veils have sprang for and wide,
To bear her edicts to each distant verge,
Her legislative councils have decreed,
New members from the prairies should emerge.

And Kansas and Nebraska from the wilds,
Have come to join the great confederate band,
To aid the mother in her heavy toil,
And cultivate her fertile prairie land.
Their towns and hamlets dot the country o'er,
And promise life and ever busy throng,
With dome and spire and monumental tower,
And halls of justice regulating wrongs.

The party strife which long divided men,
But only caused a healthful contest here,
Has died amid the fiftieth changing scene,
Of science, politics and foreign war.
But sources new of still more fearful strife,
Are clouding o'er the horizon of peace,
The party elements are seeking life,
And passioned feelings striving for release.

A war of sections threatens to destroy,
What intermingles the long sustained,
The north and south dark evils long employed,
To break the Union patriots maintained.
Extreme cry in accents harsh and loud,
Down with the man who dares expression free, Unless his sentiments with their accord,
'Tis then his honest, be it false or true.

We hail thee then thou lovely new born year,
Fresh from the ashes of departed time,
And ask thy council with a trembling fear,
Of dark impending dangers on our clime.
Thou knowest well the future and the past—
Then lead us through the winding ways of time,
And teach us to avoid the bitter blast,
Which threatens to overwhelm our happy home.

Will peaceful sunshine settle on our head,
Or war red cloud bedim the horizon?
Shall hopes bright star in dark despair be hid,
Or shine to cheer the western denizen?
Will party strife assume the fearful mood,
Of angry loud receding nations?
Or will some genius speak a kindly word,
To soothe the passion and to still the storm?

Speak gentle goddess of the coming year,
And say the freest and most prosperous strife,
Shall never blanch the maidens cheek with fear, Disturb the daughter or distress the wife.
What shall the progress of our Kansas be,
Onward, advancing in ascending line,
Shall we a teeming populace display,
Rich in the blessings of their happy home?

In thine omnipotent prophetic skill,
Tell us the promise of our youthful town,
Shall we in richness and in splendor dwell,
Or have we reached our acme of renown?
Shall Leavenworth be sung in future rhyme,
Or shall her name be lost amid the wail,
Which will ascend in distant coming time, O'er mouldering wigwags on the Indian trail?

We bid thee listen to our own report,
And grasp the pencil of prophetic time,
Our embryo city shortly will invite,
The whirl of business and the active throng,
The sounding hammer at the early dawn,
Will mingle with the business of the hour,
The church bell sounding on the Sabbath morn,
Will call the Christian to the house of prayer.

We ask thee now to visit other lands,
And tell us what developments are there,
Will Russia conquer freedom struggling bands,
Or will the allies seize the conqueror's prize?
Shall Kossuth gain the great maternal aid,
And join his countrymen in Hungary,
And crush the Austrians faithless double head,
And shout at arms his glorious victory?

Shall Warsaw's proud and patriotic men, Invade the land where once they dwelt in peace?
Shall Turkey conquered or triumphant frown,
Upon the efforts of expiring Greece?
Will Spain continue to insult her God,
And revel in the halls of luxury?
Will France submit to young Napoleon's rod,
Her freedom grace his dance of revelry?

Will Chilian powers encourage enterprise,
And proud Brazil invite our yankee trade?
And on the bosom of her rivers prize
The business that Americans have made?
Will Europe send to Amazonian's land,
Her starving hordes to find a plenteous board,
Where fertile soil and rich profusion lend,
Inviting prospects to the world abroad?

And lastly, will the printers bills be paid?
And will the people patronize the press?
The surest method of increasing trade,
And saving men and women from distress.
Will they send in advertisements scores, Expanding business by such honest plans,
Showing the world their offices and stores Through such magnetic and attractive means?

A happy New Year to each one of you,
The Editor the Devil and the Cook,
Be ever to your duty firm and true,
For science hangs upon the printers stick.
May each advance the Carrier his fee,
And pay of him this annual Address,
May busy crown our land of liberty,
God, in his mercy, every mortal bless.

An individual was arrested the other day in Cincinnati, endeavoring to pick a man's pocket. He said he was at used to the business and was just trying to get his hand in.

'Bob! by sitting on that side of the cars you are missing all the sights on this side.'
'Never mind, Tim, I am fighting all the misses on this side.'

An old lady being late at church, entered as the congregation were rising for prayer. 'La, said she, courtesying, 'don't get up on my account!'

Dr. E. W. Brown, Oculist.
RESPECTFULLY tenders his professional services to the citizens of upper Missouri and the Kansas Territory. Having carried on an Eye Infirmary for several years past in Platte City, Mo., and having treated a large number of patients with almost every description of diseased Eyes, he flatters himself that he will be able to give satisfaction to all who may desire his services. His infirmary buildings are large and fitted up so that patients are not only well accommodated but also in the most comfortable manner. The cost of being cured at his establishment is comparatively small when traveling and other expenses to St. Louis or any other distant point are considered. Persons having children laboring under long continued scrofulous disease of the Eyes are most positively assured that they can get them cured at his infirmary. Dr. Brown would, also, most respectfully invite the attention of the medical profession throughout the country to his establishment, and if cases of diseased Eyes should spring up in their practice that can only be treated successfully at an eye infirmary he would be most pleased to have them recommended or sent to his. If any further information is wanted, call on Capt. Easton, or W. H. Adams, at the Herald office. [Nov 24, '54]

Sept. 29, '54. CHARLES FRIES.

Dr. Easterly's Compound Extract of Iodine and Sarsaparilla.
FOR the removal and permanent cure of diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, such as Scrofula, or King's Evil, Obsolete Cutaneous Eruptions, Pimples on the Face, Blotches, Biles, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring-worm or Tetter, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains in the limbs, and all other diseases of the skin, Rheumatism, swelling of the Glands, Syphilis, diseases of the Kidneys, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Nervous Affections, General Debility, Neuralgia, or Tic Dolorieux, Cancer, Gout, &c., White Swellings, diseases arising from an impudiculous use of Mercury, Exposure of impudence in life, Female Irregularities, &c., &c.
CHRONIC CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES.
The medicine is composed of the most salutary and efficacious articles in the vegetable kingdom. It is chiefly composed of the Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, Yellow Dock, and the Hydrate of Potassium, all of which are known to the medical faculty to be highly efficacious in the removal of diseases, and to have a specific action upon the Liver, Kidneys, Blood, Glands, and Urinary Organs, restoring them to a healthy action, enabling them to perform the functions which nature designed. It is now confidently believed that Dr.
Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla is the best alterative and blood purifying medicine ever offered to the public. It is cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold.

FOR SCROFULA.
Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla is recommended as the most efficacious medicine that can possibly be used. Not one instance of its failure has ever occurred when faithfully used.
For scrofula, boils, blotches, tumors, white swellings, cancers, enlarged glands, fever of the bowels, rheumatism, syphilis, skin leprosy, erysipelas, tetter, salt rheum, and all cutaneous diseases. Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla cannot be too highly extolled. It searches out the very root of the diseases, destroying it, and restoring the blood, and driving out all impure or diseased fluids of the body, and by removing the cause, renders the cure certain and permanent.

INDIGESTION OR DYSPEPSIA.
No medicine, perhaps, has ever been discovered which has done so much to the stomach, and causes the secretion of healthy gastric juice to digest the food, as Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla. No one has used it for such complaints without benefit.

FOR RHEUMATISM.
Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla is used with the greatest success in rheumatic complaints, especially such as are chronic. It cures by driving out all impurities and foul humors which have accumulated in the system, which is the cause of the rheumatism, gout and swelling of the joints. Other remedies sometimes give temporary relief—this entirely eradicates the disease from the system.

FOR MERCURIAL AND VENEREAL DISEASES.
AFFECTING THE BLOOD, GLANDS, CORDS, BONES AND NERVES.
Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla is the best ever invented. This medicine is offered to the public, not as mere purifier of the blood, but a powerful eradicator of the most virulent poisons, occasioned by mercurial and venereal diseases, which resist the action of all other remedies. It will cure the worst kind of mercurial diseases, no matter how deeply it may have eaten into the frame and vital organs. It will cure the worst cases of secondary syphilis or venereal diseases, no matter how long it may have existed, how bad, or how deeply seated in the system, it will annihilate and expel the vicious and restore the system to a state of perfect health and purity. For ulcers in the mouth and throat, and all other diseases of the mouth and throat, it has been used with perfect and triumphant success, when the most eminent physicians had given up all hope as vain. So confident is the proprietor of its power to cure Tuberculous Consumption, that he solicits a trial in the worst of cases.

Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla.
THE best and only Extract that ought to be used.
In these complaints, this medicine has performed most astonishing cures.

FOR NERVOUS DISEASES.
No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which is produced by the use of Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla, on the diseased, debilitated and shattered nervous system. Whether brought down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organism is at once revived, and built up. In cases of neuralgia, nervous headache, loss of memory, general prostration, nervousness, vertigo, pain in the nerves of the face, and the various train of nervous affections, it will produce a cure in an astonishing short period of time. The effect of this medicine is to give permanent relief to the sufferer, and to restore the shattered and debilitated constitution to its pristine health and vigor.

TO THE LADIES.
Ladies of pale complexion and consumptive habits, and such as are debilitated from any of the obstructions incident to the sex, such as obstructed or painful menstruation, flour albus or whites, green sickness, &c., excessive flow of the menses, barrenness, &c., can be restored by the use of two or three bottles of Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla, to bloom and vigor. It is far the best remedy for the diseases of weakly children, and such as have had humors—being pleasant, they readily take it.
It immediately restores the appetite, strength and color. Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effect upon the human frame. Persons of all weakness and languid before taking Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla, at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately contracts the nervousness of the female frame.

IS A WONDERFUL PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD.
It is very pleasant to the taste, and is more concentrated, stronger, purer, and more effective than any other medicine in use. Families who have used this article are never willing to be without it. Taken in the early stages, it is a sure preventive of almost any species of disease.

A WORD TO THE AFFLICTED.
If there are individuals in Weston, suffering with any disease above named, they are earnestly advised to make a trial of Dr. Easterly's Iodine and Sarsaparilla. This medicine has cured and will cure the most desperate cases.

EVANSVILLE, Ill., Oct. 20, 1853.

Dr. Easterly, Sir: We feel pleased in stating that we have purchased three dozen bottles of your fever and ague killer, which you warranted to me. I have sold several of the dozen bottles, which I also warranted. Your medicine has given entire satisfaction so far, it having effected several cures of the chills and fever. One case particularly—a lady who had been afflicted since the latter part of last summer, and had tried a great many remedies, besides having a physician part of the time, all of which failed. She bought a bottle of your medicine, and before she had used one-third of it,
she was entirely cured, and has enjoyed good health ever since. In no case has it failed to effect a permanent cure.

Respectfully,
JOHN MILLER & Co.

Dr. Easterly—Dear Sir: When I was in your city in March last, I purchased one dozen bottles of your fever and ague killer, which you warranted to me. I have sold several of the dozen bottles, which I also warranted. Your
having effected several cures of the chills and fever. One case particularly—a lady who had

she was entirely cured, and has enjoyed good
health ever since. In no case has it failed to effect a permanent cure.

Respectfully yours,

P. S. I will be in your place again shortly, and will buy more largely.
